

SPORTS.

The publication of a statement of the number of teams and individual entries which have been made for the National bowling tournament, indicate that Akron is among the best represented cities of her size which will send bowlers to Buffalo, Cincinnati will have but a single individual at the tournament. St. Louis and other large cities will be represented most meagerly, and the strong representation which will go from Akron, makes her rank in the front.

Seventy-one five man teams have been entered; 106 two man teams and 209 individual entries have been made. The total sum that has been received in the way of entry fees, is $3880, of which $5 per cent will go for prizes. This will leave over $1,200 more than the amount guaranteed.

The Akron bowlers are confident that they will give an excellent account of themselves, at the tournament, and preparations are under way for their departure, the exact date for which has not yet been decided.

S. E. A. C. WILL ORGANIZE.

A basket ball team will be organized at the South End Athletic club, in about two weeks. The club has not had a team in the field as yet this season, and the statement by members that a team will be organized at once, is received with pleasure by the large number of admirers of the game who are members of the S. E. A. C.

IN FULL SWING.

The pool tournament at the Howard st. billiard rooms, for the championship of the city, will be resumed to-night with a match between Brown and Lore. The match has developed into a very interesting fight, and the result can not as yet be predicted with anything more certain than the widest chance. Some of the scores have been excellent, and even better playing is said to be in prospect before the match closes.

THIS WEEK'S BOWLING.

The following schedule of games has been arranged for the Howard st. bowling league, for this week. Monday—A. M. C. vs. Empires; Wednesday—Piedmont vs. A. M. C.; Friday—Empires vs. Imperials. On Thursday night, the Imperials will play the Kirkwoods a return match. The Imperials defeated the Kirkwoods at a recent meeting.

RUHLLIN GONE.

Gus Ruhlin has gone. The restlessness and dissatisfaction that were his during the months that have elapsed since his meeting with Jeffries, were too much for the Akron heavyweight, and he has determined to seek better things and better times in the East. Ruhlin will meet Madden in the East, and will try his hardest to get a match.

The prospect of an end to inactivity, in the proposed match with "Wild Bill" Hanrahan have done much to revive Gus' hopes. He has never despaired of regaining his standing in the public eye, and he believes that one good match and one decisive victory will place him on his feet again.

WHY NOT ACCEPT?

While the heavy fall of snow does away with the possibility of skating on the lake, the rinks will do an additional business, and the hockey players will have to do a great deal of their practice work on rink ice. The challenge of the Cleveland hockey teams remains as yet unanswered, although every possible inducement for a game, with first class players has been held out.

The local players, while numerous, and some of them excellent players, have not as yet sufficient organization to permit an answer to the challenge. A well attended meeting would be in order, now that the prospects of good sport are bright and conditionally upon the organization of the local players.

WILLIAMS' STATEMENT.

The management of the North End club is inclined to think that the publishing of a story to the effect that the removal of the Union Charity Association from its quarters in the Walsh block, was occasioned in part by the dislike that was taken to the noise caused by the club, will be harmful to the former organization.

President Williams, of the North End club, stated Saturday, that he had no knowledge of an offer of $50 having been made to the club by Mr. Walsh, if the club would break its lease and seek quarters elsewhere. He states further that the most friendly relations possible, exist between the members of the N. E. A. C., the owners of the block, and the Union Charity Association.

The North End club has no intention of moving and will probably remain in the Walsh block for the full three years for which the rooms have been leased.

Fined $10 and Costs for Disorderly Conduct.

Mayor Was Tardy, and His Assistants Smiled.

There was a self-congratulatory twinkle in the eyes of Mayor's Clerk Irvin, Prisonkeeper Washer and the regular attendants at Police court Monday morning, when the time came for opening court, and Mayor Doyle failed to make an appearance. The minutes lengthened into a half hour and still there was no mayor, and only after three-quarters of an hour of suspense did he finally come into the court room.

"Just let me call him down for being late again," muttered Clerk Irvin, when the mayor came in. "This fellow and a partner were looking for trouble Saturday night," said Officer Wilson, indicating Albert Brigger, who was in on the charge of disorderly conduct. "The two had been into Cox's barber shop, on South Main st., and threatened to assault Cox. They had also been in Frank Pierce's saloon, and broken some glasses there. When I found them they were down at the railway tracks gathering up stones, for the purpose of making a 'cobblestone finish.'"

Brigger's partner was not apprehended, but the prisoner received a sentence of $10 and costs.

The affidavit in the case of John Douglass and Lizzie Sprague, arrested for fornication, was discussed by the Mayor, on motion of Attorney Scott D. Kenfield, for the defendants. A new affidavit will be made out at once, and the case will have a hearing Tuesday morning.

Walter Buckmaster, who was arrested a week ago for assault and battery on Mrs. Alice Uplinger, was found guilty Monday morning, and fined $10 and costs. The costs in the case will be heavy, because of the trial.

August Rowe, a young colored man who was arrested for non-support, was released on a continuance of his case, provided he gets work at once, which he promised to do.

Hugh Kirus, James Malloy, Archie Hetty, Harry English, drunks, were fined $2 and costs each.

Tom Lewis, colored, was arrested as a suspicious character. Lewis is a young man, who has lived in Akron for some time. The case was continued.

INTO THE SNOW.

Man and a Maid Were Unceremoniously Upset.

Mr. Roy Stein, of South st., and one Miss Myers, of East Akron, were out sleigh-riding Sunday afternoon, and became so enraptured by the jingling of the bells that they forgot where they were going and ran into a snow bank with the result that both were precipitated headlong into the soft, white snow.

The unfortunate occurrence happened at the intersection of Cross st., and South Broadway. The horse went but a few yards after his precious freight had been so rudely jarred out of the sleigh. Neither of the young people was hurt and they proceeded on their pleasure trip later accompanied by the smiles and best wishes for a safe journey of the large crowd which had gathered.

AT HOME.

Absent Treasurer of Euclid Bank Returns.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 13.—Charles H. Stewart, secretary and treasurer of the Euclid Avenue Trust & Savings Co., returned from Chicago, yesterday morning, accompanied by Dr. S. E. Simmons of Norwalk, who has been with him for some days. Mr. Stewart was driven immediately to his home at Euclid heights, and under advice of his physician he was not allowed to see anybody outside of his family during the day.

According to a statement made by a member of the family Mr. Stewart is suffering from nervous prostration caused by the severe strain to which he has recently been subjected. With a rest of a few days it is expected that he will again be able to resume his business duties.

FOOLED THE COLONEL.

The Way Paddy Branigan Outmaneuvered His Superior.

The colonel, or "Old Daddy," as he was usually called, had a habit of strolling round the camps at most unseasonable hours. Sentries had to be continually on the alert, for nothing would have given "Old Daddy" greater satisfaction than to have pounced on some luckless one who might light the midnight hours suitable for a quiet snooze.

Paddy Branigan made that mistake once. There in the quiet moonlight he sat, all unconscious of the colonel's presence, his rifle laid against the tent, himself buried in slumber. Gently the rifle was lifted from its place. But some good angel awoke Paddy in time to see the colonel making his way to the guard tent. Paddy missed his rifle at once and followed the colonel with the caution of a prairie cat.

Outside the guard tent stood the wooden rack which held the rifles of the guard, and into it "Old Daddy" placed Paddy's rifle, himself entering the tent to call the sergeant in charge. This was Paddy's opportunity. He grabbed his rifle and was back at his post in an instant. The colonel brought the sergeant outside and ordered him to count the rifles.

"All correct, sir," said the sergeant. "Nothing of the sort. There is an extra rifle there. That I am certain of, for I put it there myself."

"I beg your pardon, sir, but the number is quite correct," again replied the somewhat amazed sergeant. "Come with me—come with me this instant, and I'll soon let you see what I mean."

The sergeant followed his chief, wondering what was going to happen. "Halt! Who goes there?" rang out clear and sharp in the night air from the now wide-awake Paddy.

This was more than "Old Daddy" had ever dreamed of. For a moment he was paralyzed. Then he marched straight up to Paddy, gazed into his sweetly innocent face and, with a "Well, I'm blowed," turned on his heel and vanished—Scotsman.

STARTED

Off With a Rush and Vigor.

January Term of Court Opened Monday.

Judge Hayden Expected Next Week.

N. O. T. Co. Sued For $15,000—Other Court News.

The January term in Common Pleas court started off Monday morning with a promptness and vigor that augurs well for the term. Only a few minutes were required to close up the October term, and all but three of the Grand Jurors were on hand. It was impossible for Mr. Richard Lewis, of Clinton, to come, as he fell on the ice Sunday evening and broke three ribs. Mr. R. Robinson, of Boston, was excused on account of his having a cold. Mr. Sumner Nash, of Akron, was not on hand, and three talesmen were called—Messrs. I. C. Gibbons, N. S. Porter and Hiram Getz, of Akron. The other jurors are Milton Weyrick, Springfield; John Souers, Akron; Kyer Arnold, Copley; Sidney Barnes, Tallmadge; Chas. Parisette, Akron; Geo. Wise, Springfield; M. V. Baugh, Akron; Frank King, Coventry; Joseph Bishop, Portage; Michael Hissner, Akron; Daniel J. Smith, Green; F. Barlow, Hudson. Mr. I. C. Gibbons was sworn in as foreman of the Grand Jury.

Judge Kohler thanked the attorneys for their promptness and co-operation during the October term, and said that disposition had been made of an unusual number of important cases. He stated that Judge Hayden would probably be here next week to assist in holding court. The charge to the Grand Jury contained no special recommendations and Prosecutor Hagelbarger said that there was a large number of cases to be investigated.

County Clerk Hershey predicts that a very substantial decrease in the number of cases on the docket will be made during the January term. Among the affairs in closing up the October term were announcements by Judge Kohler that the motion for a new trial in the case of Wm. Buchtel vs. Geo. W. Crouse and Ferdinand Schumacher, bondsmen of A. B. Tinker, had been overruled. Chas. H. Bassett has been granted a divorce from Laura S. Bassett. A motion for a new trial in the case of Martin Blocker vs. Joseph Lamiric was overruled.

SUED FOR $15,000.

The N. O. T. Co. has been made defendant in another suit for damages. David C. Harpham asks for $15,000, claimed for personal injuries. On Sept. 27, 1901, he was struck by a street car on East Market st., at Arlington, and one of his legs cut off. He claims that the fender on the car was not lowered, and that the gong was not sounded. His view of the car was partially obstructed by several wagons and teams.

N. O. T. APPEALS.

The N. O. T. Co. has appealed from a decision of Justice Falot, giving J. B. Looker judgment against the company for $111.10. Mr. Looker claimed that a car had struck his horse and delivery wagon, causing the amount of damage asked.

THIRD TRIAL.

For the third time, the case of Raymond G. Marsh vs. the C. T. & V., will be put on trial in Common Pleas court Tuesday. The plaintiff asks damages for personal injuries. He was given judgment twice in Common Pleas

In reply the pastors passed the following resolution:

BRICKLAYERS'

Big Convention Is in Session in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Jan. 13.—More than 300 delegates to the annual convention of the Bricklayers and Masons International union were in their seats this morning when Dr. J. Guy McCandless, welcomed them to the city. The response was made by President Gubbins, of Chicago. The convention will be in session two weeks. Among the important questions to be considered will be the proposed affiliation with the American Federation of Labor, an eight-hour work day, and the meeting of the Union biennially, instead of annually. President Gubbins, it is thought, will be re-elected. The union is one of the strongest in labor circles and has over 70,000 members.

GREEN THE POPULAR SHADE FOR THE HATS OF EARLY SPRING.

Green is to be the popular shade in the new Spring hat. The milliners have been partial this season to crude shades of green in the trimmings of hats. The first models from Paris show that the color has been retained and is used extensively in straw and felt. Green will be combined chiefly with white, black, gray and brown. Two of the latest models show this fact at its best. One model is a broad brimmed hat of white felt, worn off the face, the brim caught back to the crown in front by a twisted band of bright try green ribbon. One end of this ribbon encircles the crown, and to it is attached a bunch of pale green mistletoe, so as to rest on the brim in front and opposite to it behind a bunch of green and white variegated holly with red berries. Underneath the brim, in front, the ribbon is drawn up into a large pouf, which is placed on a folded band of the same. Another hat, also turned up in front, is made of a soft shape in iron gray homespun, entirely attached over in rows about half an inch distant from each other. The crown is rather wide with a flat top, and the hat rests on a band of gray velvet. The trimming consists solely of two long and very wide, acuminated, cutoutaux died a brilliant parrot green. These are fastened to the right side of the brim on its edge, so that one curves round over the brim toward the left, while the other, following the same direction, curves round underneath over the band. The advantage of green is that it is a color that does not fade easily, and retains its freshness more than any other color. The illustrations show the latest models for Spring hats collected by the Millinery Trade Review. Reading from left to right, the hats are described as follows: Clifton chon, ostrich feather and velvet. One of the most stunning models of the year. Turban of wood-brown malines with tea roses and brownish tinted foliage. Fold of pale blue panne velvet. White malines, crown banded with pale blue panne velvet, white roses form a wreath around edge. Top of hat covered with pale green garland and a big black rosette. Pale blue malines in fine tucks, a ruffle of creamy lace draping the brim. Plack velvet bands, with a large flat bow on wreath of small blue roses. Two draped plaques of coral pink fancy braid, with folds of pink chiffon between. White malines, cream lace and nine large black malines, rosettes, white feathers. Hat of white puffed malines; crown has turquoise blue panne velvet around it. Facing of Autumn leaves outlined with iridescent spangles. CENTRAL PASSENGER ASSOCIATION MILEAGE. The Erie Railroad now sells and accepts C. P. A. mileage orders.
